Who wouldn't love a little more support when it comes to how to support our older learners with literacy? Come learn more about evidence-based literacy practices for grades 6-12, based around the free educator practice guides from the Institute for Education Sciences: Providing Reading Interventions for Students in Grades 4–9 and Teaching Secondary Students to Write Effectively. Each session will include a review of the practices and how to make them happen in your classroom, as well as access to a digital repository of resources. All subject areas are welcome! We are all literacy educators!
