

Arizona Dept. of Education 2013-14 Art Competition Rules & Guidelines

The Everyday Art of Arizona (the “Competition”) starts on August 22, 2013 at 12:01 AM and ends on November 8, 2013 at 11:59 AM.

ELIGIBILITY: Competition is open to all Arizona residents who are in grades kindergarten through twelve attending a public, private, charter, alternative or tribal school except children of Arizona Department of Education employees. Competition is subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws. This competition will be divided into four (4) divisions: Division One (1) includes students in grades kindergarten through second; Division Two (2) includes students in grades third through sixth; Division Three (3) includes students in grades seventh through eighth and Division Four (4) includes students in grades ninth through twelfth. Each local educational agency (district or charter holder) will be limited to four entries; multiple entries are allowed per division. Once four entries have been received from a district, entries will no longer be accepted from that district.

HOW TO ENTER: During the Competition Period, students will produce a piece of artwork based on the theme The Everyday Art of Arizona. Artwork created for the competition must be made on any 12” x 18” paper. Students who would like to enter artworks of alternative sizes and media are welcome to do so; however, they are responsible for framing their own artwork. In the case of canvas paintings, the edges must be finished appropriately for gallery display. To enter the competition, all entries will be judged by your district or charter administrators. The district will narrow down all entries to four. The school district administrator will then submit the four finalists’ artwork for further judging. All districts or school organizations are allowed to enter a total of four (4) entries from their district; multiple entries are allowed per division level. All district or charter administrators must fill out the entry form found at this link to help the Department identify artwork submitted for the competition: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/FDBB6CT>. Each entry form will be for one artwork only; district and charter administrators will have access to the entry form online up to 4 times for each of the works (up to 4) submitted by that district/charter.

All entries must be delivered to Arizona Department of Education (ADE) receiving sites between October 31, 2013 at 8:00 a.m. and November 8, 2013 by 11:59 a.m. Submitting districts, charter holders and schools may pick up their artwork beginning October 30, 2014 through November 7, 2014 at the building where they originally submitted the artwork (see below for submission locations). These dates will coincide with artwork drop off for the 2014-2015 Student Artwork Competition.
