

Using Harry Wong's, First Days of School; How to Be An Effective Teacher, read pages 83 – 89 on the subject of classroom management. After you have read through these pages, please complete the following prompts:

1. Define in your own words classroom management. What is it's importance in the classroom? How could you see classroom management as being a positive influence in the classroom?
2. Explain how/why classroom management will be important in YOUR classroom.
3. What is the difference between DISCIPLINING a classroom and MANAGING a classroom? Make up an example of how you might see discipline in the classroom and make up an example of how you might see classroom management in the classroom.
  - a. DISCIPLINE example:
  - b. CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT example:
4. Using an additional sheet of paper, design an ideal classroom that promotes positive classroom management. When designing your classroom, keep in mind issues like desks, bulletin boards, instruction places, peer discussion areas, reading areas, etc....
5. Set up 5 – 10 classroom expectations/rules that you would introduce into your classroom in order to promote positive classroom management (complete these on the bottom of this page):
