

ASU Leaps and Bounds

⇒ Offers a professional development workshop aimed to strengthen practitioners understanding of: parenting styles, teaching to parents, supporting quality parent-child interaction, early literacy practices, and planning family programs.

Professional Development Workshop

Participants discuss supporting parent-child interaction using puzzle assembly as an example activity.

To register, call: 480-965-8001

Cost:

$1,800 hosted at agency

(up to 20 people)

$110 per person (ASU Campus)

Dates: Oct. 24th, 8:30-12:30 pm

Nov. 29th, 8:30-12:30 pm

What practitioners have said about the workshop:

- ⇒ “I like that we all have an opportunity to share ideas and really get to know our classmates.”
- ⇒ “I will use the knowledge I gained today to train our tutors so that we can have more successful parents.”
- ⇒ “I loved it. It was just great.”
- ⇒ “I believe I learned a more effective way to connect with parents on a level that will encourage them to make changes.”