

Who Am I?

Directions:

1. The class will have read a literary or expository text.
2. The teacher will write character names or vocabulary from the text on sticky notes.
3. The teacher will then place sticky notes on the backs of various students (Student A).
4. The class will pair up and Student B will give clues (using adjectives) as to the character or vocabulary on the back of Students A.
5. Student A will try to guess who they are.
