

Dear Parent(s) or Guardian(s),

Summer is coming soon and you may be thinking about what your child will do for meals while school is out. The good news is that the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) partners with organizations in your local community to serve free meals through the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP). It's food that's in, while school is out. There are no income requirements, and any child age 18 and younger may come to eat.

Here is information about your local Summer Food site(s):

Days meals are served:

Times meals are served:

Place where meals are served:

Contact for more information:

For general information about the Summer Food Service Program, please visit www.azsummerfood.gov. We look forward to seeing your child this summer! Thanks!

Sincerely,

This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.