

Scripts for Parent Perspective H23

Mark

1. Tell them your name, your job title, and where you currently work.
2. How long did it take you to find a job that you enjoy?
3. What do you think was holding you back from finding meaningful work?
4. How did you overcome that challenge?
5. Now that you have been working at your job for a while, what advice do you have for people with disabilities that are looking for work?
6. How do you think self-determination and self-advocacy relate to employment, for people with disabilities?

Joanie

1. Tell them your name and why you decided to participate in this conference.
2. Why did you decide to take your son out of the public school system?
3. What did you decide to do instead and what led you to that decision?
4. What do you think is the most important advice for families about the IEP process?
5. How do you think your decisions about his education have benefited him as an adult?
6. Why do you think self-determination and self-advocacy are important for people with disabilities?

Mellissa

1. Tell them your name and why you decided to participate in this conference.
2. Were you happy with your son's public school experience? Why or why not?
3. What did you do to advocate for your son's education?
4. What do you think is the most important advice for families about the IEP process?
5. How do you think your decisions about his education have benefited him as an adult?
6. Why do you think self-determination and self-advocacy are important for people with disabilities?