

AMERICAN/ARIZONA HISTORY

Arizona Historical Society

The Arizona Historical Society contains the world's largest collection of Arizona history artifacts, documents, and photographs. It also has information about research, educational programs, and tours.

The Arizona History Convention

Information about the annual Arizona History Convention.

Arizona Memory Project

The Arizona Memory Project is an online effort to provide access to the wealth of primary sources in Arizona libraries, archives, museums and other cultural institutions. It provides the opportunity to view some of the best examples of government documents, photographs, maps, and objects that chronicle Arizona's past and present.

Arizona State Parks

Provides a list of and links to Arizona State Parks.

The Avalon Project: Yale Law School

This site offers full text documents of American law, history and diplomacy.

Best Practices for Teaching History in Middle and High School Classrooms

From the National History Education Clearinghouse, a project of George Mason University and Stanford University History Education Group, this website page on Best Practices offers strategies and practices for teaching historical interpretation, using primary sources, examples of historical thinking, and teaching with textbooks.

Digital History

Digital resources to enhance the teaching of American history.

Education World

September 11 lessons (K-12) and resources for classroom teachers.

Free Federal Resources for Educational Excellence: Teaching and Learning Resources from Federal Agencies

All federal resources linked to a single site; divided into subjects, including History and Social Studies.

The Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History

Includes modules on American history. The modules cover more than twenty topics that correspond to the major periods in American history.

Globalization101.org

Free high school lesson plans on globalization.

National Anthropological Archives

Online exhibits include photos, research reports, field notes, journals, manuscripts, correspondence, and records from sources such as the Bureau of American Ethnology, Smithsonian anthropologists, and other preeminent scholars.

The National Archives Teaching with Documents

This section contains reproducible copies of primary documents from the holdings of the National Archives of the United States and links to Analysis Worksheets for eight types of primary sources.

National History Day

National History Day helps teachers meet educational standards; disseminates high quality curriculum materials; and sponsors challenging contests that teach students critical skills for the 21st century.

National Museum of the American Indian

Resources and lessons (4-8 and 9-12) on the indigenous geography of the Americas.

National Parks and Monuments

Provides a list of and links to Arizona's National Parks and Monuments.

Native American Sites – Multnomah County Library

Provides an extensive list of links to Native American sites.

PBS NewsHour

High school lessons, activities and links from the NewsHour Program.

Teacher Files \(pdf\)

Readings for Grades 4 and 5 \(pdf\)

Readings for Grades 6 and 7 \(pdf\)

Student Activities \(pdf\)

Art for Classroom Use \(optional\) \(pdf\)

The SRI Foundation is providing to Arizona teachers its Subsistence Strategies Lesson that was created in connection with the Lower Oak Creek Archaeological Project. The lesson is designed for grades 4-7 and is aligned to the Arizona Social Studies Standard.

The Smithsonian Institute

Lessons and resources on culture and history from the Smithsonian Institute.

United States Memorial Holocaust Museum

The U.S. Holocaust Museum offers materials, resources, online training, workshops, conferences, and fellowships for teaching about the Holocaust.

ushistory.org

Revolutionary Period resources from The Independence Hall Association (IHA).