

Making Connections

Science and Social Studies

Saturday, January 28, 2012
9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Where: The Arizona Historical Society Museum at Papago Park
1300 N. College Ave.
Tempe, AZ 85281

Cost: AHS members $25
Non AHS members $30

*Make check payable to Arizona Historical Society Education Department or pay with credit card by phone.

Includes FREE Materials for Each Participant:

- Award-winning curriculum, America's Wildlife – Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow
- Box of Study Specimen of Arizona Minerals, including 45 types of rocks
- SRP water and energy educator materials
- Certificate for 6 hours of Continuing Education Credits
- Catered lunch

Workshop Features:

- FREE curriculum resources of history, water, geology, and conservation
- Guided nature tour of Papago Park by David Brown, ASU Professor
- Modeled lessons
- Hands-on workshop with collections
- Local community resources

Please contact Megan Gately to register: mgately@azhs.gov or 480.929.0292 x137.

