

You are Invited to Join us for an Supreme Court DBQ Workshop in Mesa

Please join us for a free one-day workshop on Thursday, January 31, 2013. The program will be held in Mesa, AZ, and will be titled Civil and Economic Liberty: Supreme Court DBQs.

Participants will:

- Analyze how the Supreme Court has interpreted the Constitution's protections of civil and economic liberty.
- Receive a Professional Development certificate for 6 seat hours.
- Discuss Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission (2010), Schechter Poultry Corp. v. United States (1935), and Korematsu v. United States (1944).
- Receive a FREE download of our brand new online resources exploring the connection between civil and economic liberty.
- Explore resources to conduct document-based questions on Supreme Court cases.
- Discuss primary source documents and historically-based, expert methods to address these topics.
- Receive complimentary breakfast and lunch.

This Bill of Rights Institute Constitutional Workshop will help teachers address multiple Common Core Standards.

WHO: You! Social Studies Teachers, grades 8-12

WHEN: Thursday, January 31, 2013 – 7:30 am-2:30 pm

WHERE: Mesa Public Schools Student Services Center,
1025 N. Country Club Drive in Mesa AZ

REGISTER NOW AT:

<http://billofrightsinstitute.org/mesa-1-31-13>

All registrations must be received online.

For questions, contact us at events@BillofRightsInstitute.org, or at 703-894-1776, ext 20.

This workshop is presented by the Bill of Rights Institute, thanks to the generous support of the Charles Koch Foundation