

WORLD HISTORY

Bridging World History

The World History Traveler is a thematically-organized interactive that helps teachers and students learn more about the patterns and processes that make up world history. Designed for use as both professional development and classroom materials for AP level courses. Teachers can download each of the 26 unit's content overview, selected readings, bibliography, activities, and more.

The Center for Latin American Studies

The Center for Latin American Studies offers a variety of materials, including curriculum units, videos and books, available on loan to K-12 Educators. In addition, the Center continues to develop an online curriculum resource center.

The CIA World Fact Book

Lists population, government, military, and economic information for nations recognized by the United States.

Peace Corps World Wise Schools

Grades 3-12. Lesson plans and activities to get kids and classrooms involved and learning through the Peace Corps.

United Nations Cyber Schoolbus

A global teaching and learning website from the United Nations. K-6

WorldImages

This site provides access to the California State University IMAGE Project. It contains over 60,000 images, is global in coverage and includes all areas of visual imagery. WorldImages is accessible anywhere and its images may be freely used for non-profit educational purposes.

World Digital Library

The World Digital Library (WDL) makes available on the Internet, free of charge and in multilingual format, significant primary materials from countries and cultures around the world.

World History for Us All

A model curriculum for teaching world history in middle and high schools from a national collaboration of K-12 teachers, collegiate instructors, and educational technology specialists. It is a project of San Diego State University in cooperation with the National Center for History in the Schools at UCLA.