

STATE BOARD MEETING DATE May 19, 2014

SUBJECT: Presentation and discussion from the Arizona Minority Education Policy Analysis Center (AMEPAC) on the 2013 Arizona Minority Student Progress Report.

PRESENTED BY: Alfredo G. del los Santos, Jr, Research Professor, ASU

MANAGEMENT TEAM REVIEW:

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The Arizona Minority Education Policy Analysis Center (AMEPAC) is a policy center of the Arizona Commission for Postsecondary Education. AMEPAC's mission is to stimulate through studies, statewide discussion, debate, and constructive improvement of Arizona minority student's early awareness, access and achievement throughout all sectors of the education pipeline.

The Arizona Minority Student Progress Report is an annual report produced by AMEPAC. The objective of the report is to provide comprehensive and accurate baseline and trend data which will identify the extent and significance of educational attainment disparities during the time periods reported.

The 2013 Minority Student Progress Report presentation will provide a snapshot of the educational achievement of minority students in Arizona, from pre-K through postsecondary education.

BOARD ACTION REQUESTED: INFORMATION ACTION/DESCRIBED

ATTACHMENTS: YES NO

Arizona Minority Student Progress Report 2013: Arizona in Transformation