

FY16 ESEA ConApp

- Allocations posted
 - AZ Title I cut by 1% - $3,107,791
 - Formula distribution changes

Basic	Concentration	Targeted	EFIG
100.1%	100.0%	101.4%	94.4%

- Reduction in 5-17 Census count – 303,206
(FY 15 =304,029) (823)
- County Impact

County	% Change from FY15	Greatest impact
Apache	- 1.5%	EFIG ↓ 5.4%
Cochise	-3.3%	All ↓
Coconino	-7.2%	EFIG and Targeted ↓ 7.2%
Gila	0.8%	EFIG ↓ 3.5%
Graham	-5.3%
Greenlee	-3.2%
Maricopa	2.2%	EFIG ↓ 5.2%
Mohave	-5.1%	EFIG ↓ 7%
Navajo	4.8%
Pima	-8.7%	All ↓
Pinal	1.5%
Santa Cruz	-6.8%	All ↓
Yavapai	-1.3%	All ↓
Yuma	-7.5%	All ↓
LaPaz	-5.2%	All ↓

ESEA ConApp

- Expect to open week of August 24th
- Significant changes
 - Private schools and consultation forms
 - Plan revisions document
 - Title II

Title II-A Quick Quiz

True or False

1. An LEA may pay for a teacher to take the NES Mathematics exam to become highly qualified.
2. Recruitment stipends for teachers can be paid to all newly hired teachers.
3. Title II-A funds may be used to purchase computers for a computer lab.
4. A teacher teaching a non-core area in the computer lab may receive a retention stipend.
5. An LEA sets the criteria for what determines success with students for a teacher to receive a retention stipend.
6. An LEA may pay for test preparation materials for a core teacher to use in preparing to take an NES exam.
7. Teachers with a substitute certificate may be highly qualified by passing the appropriate NES/AEPA exam.
8. An LEA must contact private schools within its boundaries to inquire about paying for professional development for these schools.