

Accepting Out-of-State Exams

Statute allows for reciprocity of certification exams from other states with comparable professional knowledge and subject knowledge exams. Therefore, exams other than AEPA will only be accepted if the score report documents a passing score on a comparable exam from that state.