MEMORANDUM

TO: Food Distribution Program Participants
FROM: Tina Herzog, Food Distribution Program Director
Arizona Department of Education, Food Distribution Program
Original Signed
DATE: February 7, 2008
SUBJECT: UPDATE Beef Hold - Information needed by 2:00 p.m. Friday, 2/8/08

UPDATE on Beef Hold - Information needed by 2:00 p.m. Friday, February 8, 2008

A608

All cases of A608 continue to be on hold. USDA has required State Agencies to submit the quantity of cases being held at state warehouses, school districts and processors. Therefore, by 2:00 p.m. Friday, February 8, 2008, we need all sponsors to e-mail us at FDP@azed.gov with the total amount of A608 cases you currently are holding as a result of this directive from USDA. We will compile the information for submission to USDA on Friday afternoon.

A594 & A608 Processed Items

We also need the same information as above for all processed items containing A594 or A608 that are on hold. Please submit the number of cases, by processor and product number, via e-mail, no later than 2:00 p.m. Friday, February 8, 2008. Below are the latest updates from the processors to assist you in gathering this information:

Advance

If you have this product in storage, you should place it on hold and not use it until further notice from USDA. Other Advance products not listed here are not included in the hold and can continue to be used. Please note this hold directive only applies to our commodity products. Advance Food Company does not use meat supplied by Westland Meat Company for any of its commercial products.

Don Lee

The following Don Lee Products were flagged as being held for specified school districts. Schools should have received communication from Don Lee if they received the products involved in the hold. If you have not been notified and do not have the products listed below, you may assume it is acceptable to continue use of your Don Lee products. If you are unsure, please contact the broker or ADE for clarification and keep products on hold until receiving this clarification.
