

VISUAL ARTS “ACCOMPLISHED” END-OF-COURSE
SUMMATIVE PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT
Recommended to be used with High School
Year 2-4 Visual Arts Students

STUDENT DIRECTIONS

PROMPT

The Phoenix Art Museum has a call for artwork. They are asking artists to respond to contemporary issues in society, i.e., homelessness, AIDS, terrorism, animal rights, sexism, etc. You have decided to submit a piece of artwork. An artist statement will be required and all artwork must be labeled and show-ready.

PRESENTATION REQUIREMENTS

You will be scored based on the Visual Arts Rubric for Accomplished Standards that your teacher will provide for you.

1. You will need to demonstrate the following within your finished presentation:
 - Your choice of media, method, and technique.
 - Connections to contemporary issues in social, cultural, and political history.
 - Employed ethical standards including copyright, fair use, and appropriations.
 - Your knowledge, craftsmanship, and skills with purpose.
2. An artist statement must accompany your work. Your artist statement should connect your artwork to your chosen contemporary issue. (Refer to artist statement examples to guide your work.)
3. Annotated thumbnail sketch(es) are to be submitted with your artwork.
4. You are to choose how to exhibit your artwork, for example, mat, frame, stand or pedestal, and installation.
