

2017-18 Arizona Exemplary Title I Programs Award! – Scoring Rubric

Principle VI - Family and Community Engagement

Family and Community Engagement is an essential component of improving outcomes for children and youth. Effective family and community engagement is a reciprocal partnership among families, communities, and schools that reflects a shared responsibility to foster children’s development and learning.

Rating	0	1	2	3
Question 1: Describe how your school’s family engagement reflects a partnership between home and school to foster each child’s development and learning.	Meaningful opportunities for engagement do not exist for families to participate in school activities. Positive and goal-oriented relationships that encourage parent involvement to heighten student achievement are not intentionally nurtured.	Few meaningful opportunities for engagement exist for families to participate in school activities. A few positive and goal-oriented relationships that encourage parent involvement to heighten student achievement are intentionally nurtured.	Some meaningful opportunities for engagement exist for families to participate in school activities. Some positive and goal-oriented relationships that encourage parent involvement to heighten student achievement are intentionally nurtured.	Many meaningful opportunities for engagement exist for families to participate in school activities. Positive and goal-oriented relationships that encourage parent involvement to heighten student achievement are intentionally nurtured.
Question 2: Describe how your school’s community engagement reflects a partnership among school and communities to foster the development and learning of all children.	Our school has not established lines of communication among non-educational stakeholders, including community members and organizations to heighten student achievement.	Our school has established lines of communication among few non-educational stakeholders, including community members and organizations to heighten student achievement.	Our school has established lines of communication among some non-educational stakeholders, including community members and organizations to heighten student achievement.	Our school has established lines of communication among all non-educational stakeholders, including community members and organizations to heighten student achievement.
Question 3: Describe how family and community engagement at your school had impacted student achievement. Provide supporting data.	Implementation of family and community engagement has no notable impact on student achievement.	Implementation of family and community engagement has minimal impact on student achievement.	Implementation of family and community engagement has yielded some increase in student achievement but not in all areas.	Implementation of family and community engagement has yielded a substantial increase in student achievement in all areas.