

Do you want to help parents understand and develop skills to nurture the development of their gifted, talented, and twice-exceptional children?

Become a SENG Model Parent Group Facilitator!

A SENG Model Parent Group (SMPG) brings together 10-20 parents of gifted, talented and twice-exceptional children to discuss such topics as stress management, motivation, discipline, and peer relationships.

The co-facilitators of the group, though they are knowledgeable about parenting and educating gifted, talented and twice-exceptional children, do not attempt to give expert advice to families. Instead, their facilitation provides a non-judgmental and nurturing atmosphere. The parents of high-ability children are themselves a rich resource for information; participants get fresh ideas from other parents and from A Parent's Guide to Gifted Children, around which the sessions are organized. Groups meet weekly for 8 to 10 weeks.

Facilitator training includes:

- Objectives of SENG Model Parent Groups;
- Characteristics of parents in SMPGs;
- The role of SMPG Facilitators;
- Group facilitation techniques;
- Content learning session topic areas: characteristics, motivation, discipline, stress management, peer relations and sibling rivalry, and traditional breaking;
- Practice of facilitation techniques;
- Potential problems and solutions in SMPGs;
- How to organize a local SMPG; and become a volunteer Facilitator, or earn income from organizing your own Groups
- A Parent's Guide to Gifted Children and Parent Groups: The SENG Model, 2nd Ed.

NOTE: SMPG facilitators are required to maintain their annual SENG membership and certification.
