9-10th Grade Overview

Core Content Connectors (CCCs) are only used for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities. They identify the most salient grade-level, core academic content in ELA and Mathematics found in both the Arizona State Standards and the Learning Progression Frameworks \(LPF\). CCCs illustrate the necessary knowledge and skills in order to reach the learning targets within the LPF and the Arizona State Standards, focus on the core content, knowledge and skills needed at each grade to promote success at the next, and identify priorities in each content area to guide the instruction for students in this population and for the alternate assessment.

HIGH ACADEMIC STANDARDS FOR STUDENTS

11th-12th Grade Overview

Core Content Connectors (CCCs) are only used for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities. They identify the most salient grade-level, core academic content in ELA and Mathematics found in both the Arizona State Standards and the Learning Progression Frameworks \(LPF\). CCCs illustrate the necessary knowledge and skills in order to reach the learning targets within the LPF and the Arizona State Standards, focus on the core content, knowledge and skills needed at each grade to promote success at the next, and identify priorities in each content area to guide the instruction for students in this population and for the alternate assessment.

Reading Standards for Literature:

- Independently and proficiently read grade-appropriate and increasingly complex literature from a variety of genres
- Critically analyze elements of literature: plot, theme, characters, setting, figurative language, tone, conflicts, point of view, and author's purpose
- Demonstrate complex and deep understanding of a text by supporting their inferences by citing specific and detailed examples
- Demonstrate understanding of author's purpose, meaning, and tone by analyzing word choice and intentional organizational structures
- Analyze how two or more texts from the same time period treat similar themes or topics

Reading Standards for Informational:

- Infer multiple meanings and determine main ideas, author's purpose, and the effectiveness of rhetorical devices and support those inference using detailed examples from the text
- Analyze and synthesize seminal U.S. and world texts to determine how structure, organization, and presentation helps organize ideas and details effectively
- Continue to cite strong evidence contextually to support their analysis and claims

Writing Standards:

- Craft quality argumentative, informative, and narrative writing for a variety of tasks, purposes, and audiences, both formal and informal

- Integrate and synthesize information and evidence into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoid plagiarism, and follow a standard format for citation appropriate for the task and audience
- Plan, draft, revise, and edit writing in an effective and strategic manner

Speaking and Listening Standards:

- Demonstrate collaborative discussion/listening skills in a variety of settings, both formal and informal
- Extend speaking and listening skills to include paraphrasing, summarizing, and directly citing information from a variety of sources

Language Standards:

- Demonstrate mastery of grade level conventions (grammar, capitalization, punctuation, and spelling)
- Develop and utilize knowledge of Standard English conventions strategically in a variety of communication tasks for different purposes and audiences
- Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning and style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening; vary syntax for effect
