

Transition Tuesdays

A registration link will be sent out about 1 week prior to each event.

Topics

Let's Google It! Predictors of Post-School Success Series: Digital Resources for Self-Advocacy/Self-Determination

Tuesday, September 1, 2020 @ 2:30 p.m.

Digital resources supporting transition planning are critical now more than ever. To continue offering secondary transition best practices in an online environment, join us as we kick off our series highlighting digital Predictors of Post-School Success resources. In this episode, we will focus on self-advocacy and self-determination resources for assessments, postsecondary goals, and instruction & services. Plus, you'll gain access to an online resource hub. Let's fill your transition toolbox with digital resources!

ECAP without AZCIS

Tuesday, October 6, 2020 @ 2:30 p.m.

What other options are available for supporting students in completing an ECAP? This session will cover ideas for meeting ECAP requirements using resources other than AZCIS. Explore options for each of the four attributes of the ECAP process portfolio (academic, career, postsecondary, and extracurricular). Participants will learn about free online resources that will support students through the ECAP process.

Pump the Brakes: Merging Person-Centered Planning & the Transition Planning Process

Tuesday, November 17, 2020 @ 2:30 p.m.

Unsure how to support your students with disabilities in understanding and prioritizing their post-secondary individualized needs? Explore Person-Centered Planning (PCP), a process that will prepare you for the challenge of identifying appropriate methods to incorporate best practice strategies within the transition planning process. Hypothetical examples will be presented, and connections will be made to the various post-secondary environments (employment, education/training, and independent living). Join this interactive workshop to further build capacity in this area.

In the Know with PSO: Preparing for Post-School Outcomes Data Collection

Tuesday, November 17, 2020 @ 2:30 p.m.

So you've finished the 2020 Post-School Outcomes survey requirements... now what? PSO is a year-round process of preparing for, gathering, and analyzing outcomes. In this session, you will learn the basics of PSO, review the results of Arizona's most recent Post-School Outcomes (PSO) Survey, and gain key insight into available tools and resources in preparation for upcoming data collection activities. Join us in building your PSO toolkit toward a successful PSO season for you and Arizonan youths.

Office Hours

Do you have questions about Secondary Transition? Join us this fall for one of our virtual office hours. These one-hour informal meetings are opportunities to discuss transition planning topics and brainstorm strategies with Secondary Transition Specialists and other AZ educators.
