

CALL FOR PAPERS

Arizona's 2021 IDEA Conference

Renewal: Resilience to Results

September 13–15, 2021

Virtual Conference

Arizona's 2021 IDEA Conference, Renewal: Resilience to Results, is soliciting proposals for breakout sessions. The audience for this cross-stakeholder event includes special education administrative staff, youth and young adults with disabilities, family members and caregivers, state agency staff, educators, service providers, and community members who share a commitment to positive student outcomes.

Sharing your experience in meaningful planning and implementation will help us to offer hands-on sessions that include practical applications to support the important work of serving students with disabilities.

Main topics to consider for your presentation submission may include:

Proposal Review Process

Proposals must identify the primary topical strand the session is intended to address. Sessions must incorporate strategies and interventions, involve active participation of the audience, and include adequate time for reflection and sharing. Your session description must be content-specific, complete, clearly written, and must accurately reflect the material to be presented to your audience. If your proposal is selected, the session description you submit will be used in the conference program, so the description should be no longer than 300 words.

Please note: Arizona’s IDEA Conference Planning Committee reserves the right to edit session titles and descriptions to allow for accuracy, consistency, and clarity in all conference materials.

Arizona’s IDEA Conference Planning Committee will review all submissions based on the following criteria:

1. The degree to which the proposal clearly addresses one or more of the identified conference strands;
2. Clear identification of what the participants will know and take away as a result of their attendance at the session;
3. Relevance of session content to the intended audience(s);
4. The degree to which the proposal reflects evidence-based or promising practice; and
5. The degree to which the proposal has practical application and demonstrated results for the intended audience(s).

Application must be completed online.
