According to the Arizona Revised Statutes (A.R.S.) §15-249.03(K), “Dyslexia” means a specific learning disorder that is neurological in origin.

Dyslexia occurs in people of all backgrounds and intellectual levels. People who are very bright can also have dyslexia. They are often capable or even gifted in areas that do not require strong reading skills, such as art, computer science, design, drama, electronics, math, mechanics, music, physics, sales, and sports.

To learn more about Dyslexia go to on ADE's Dyslexia page.

Educational Technology Standard Review Open for Review.

The ADE Academic Standards Team is so excited to announce that the Draft Ed Tech standards are now open for public feedback. The Ed Tech Standards represent best practices for integrating technology skills into the K12 work that is already happening in Arizona schools.
