

Esports

Ken Mattern

AP Computer Science & Cybersecurity Instructor

Esports/FBLA/STEM Advisor

Peoria Unified School District

Ken Mattern is a Program Lead and CS/Cybersecurity Instructor with Cactus High in the Peoria Unified School District, Glendale, AZ. He has been an instructor in the areas of Computer Science, Cybersecurity, Business, Marketing, Sports/Entertainment Marketing, Advanced Marketing, Entrepreneurship and Cooperative Education. Esports coach and advisor to FBLA and STEM chapters on campus.

His previous business experience was owner and publisher of two local newspapers in the Phoenix metro area, in addition to several other business ventures. He has been a presenter at numerous local, state, and national conferences covering topics in college education funding, business, marketing, entrepreneurship, computer science and cybersecurity.

His community involvement includes past board positions with Phoenix College Alumni Association, President, Marketing Education Association, Executive Director, Arizona Marketing Education Association, Western Region Representative, Parents Anonymous and Glenrosa Village Neighborhood Association, board member. He was inducted into the Phoenix College Alumni Association Hall of Fame in 2009 and received the College President's 2006 Golden Bear Champions Award.