Notice: Official GED Test Price Increase

GED Testing Service LLC informed the Arizona Department of Education-Adult Education Services, of a price increase for the Official GED Test that will take effect on August 1st, 2023. In Arizona, the passing of the GED Tests is the most popular pathway to earn an AZ High School Equivalency (HSE) Diploma.

The new fee per each of the four subtests will increase by six dollars ($6.00), for a total of forty-one dollars ($41.00) per subtest. This new fee includes the five-dollar ($5.00) state administrative fee.

The price increase is only applicable to individuals who register for in-person testing, and will not affect the current fees for individuals who register for online proctoring of the GED Test.

This is the first price increase by GED Testing Service LLC, since 2014, when the GED Tests transitioned to computer-based testing.

Please note: The current fee for taking the Arizona Civics Test through GED.com will not be increased at this time.

Sincerely,

Beverly Wilson
