

Join us for an enriching week of virtual literacy professional learning in July!

Designed for educators, administrators, and literacy advocates, this virtual event will feature impactful webinars focused on advancing literacy education through the lens of the science of reading.

Virtual Event

ARIZONA LITERACY WEEK 2025

EMPOWERING EDUCATORS THROUGH ELEVATING THE SCIENCE OF READING

Mon,
July 7th

Kickoff and Intro to the Science of Reading

The virtual week will kick off with an asynchronous session and resources from the ADE ELA team - will be emailed to all registrants who have signed up for any or all of the other 4 webinars.

Tues,
July 8th

10-11:15 AM PST

Writing and the Science of Reading

Serena White, Writing Revolution

Wed,
July 9th

3-4:15 PM PST

Secondary Grades and the Science of Reading

Carolyn Durante, AIM Institute for Learning & Research

Thurs,
July 10th

10-11:15 AM PST

Family Engagement and the Science of Reading

Kelly Storebo, Lexia Learning

Fri,
July 11th

10-11:15 AM PST

Morphology and the Science of Reading

Mary Wennersten, International Dyslexia Association (IDA)

*Register
Now*

https://bit.ly/ADE_APLD

search for "literacy week" to register for your selected webinars!

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS

Educate | Empower | Elevate