Required Training Information

- You must create a lawforkids.org login account no later than 30 days after joining the SSP program.
- Failure to meet the annual training requirement will result in the LEA/charter being put on programmatic hold the following year and your LEA will not be able to draw down funds.
- If a grantee missed their annual required training, they must complete two trainings the next year, the missed training in addition to the annual required training for that year.
- For FY26, a returning district administrator must take the District Administrator Advanced Course, which is new for this year. A new District Administrator will take the Leadership 100 course.
- Site Administrator: This is typically the school principal or equivalent (ie: headmaster).
  - If the principal appoints a designee (assistant principal, dean of students, etc.) to oversee & implement the School Safety Program, both the principal and the designee must attend Leadership 100, thereafter the designee alone can attend the advanced training every year on behalf of the principal.
    - NOTE: If a principal has a designee attending training on their behalf, the principal must attend the Leadership 100 training once every grant cycle, as the training content will change substantially. The current grant cycle is SY23/24 to SY25/26. (Again, this applies to the principal even if their designee has been compliant in attending training on their behalf).
    - The designee must be an administrative on-site position such as an assistant principal, dean of students, or another administrative on-site position (for example, School Safety Coordinator, or similar). The Designee cannot be the counselor, social worker, teacher on special assignment, or front office personnel.
    - If there is turnover in either the site admin or the designee position, the new site admin or new designee must take Leadership 100 as they are new positions.
- If a grantee joins the SSP later in the school year, they are still required to attend training that school year if the appropriate training is still being offered. If the appropriate training is no longer being offered, the grantee will take the appropriate training the next school year.

- Administrators are welcome to attend New Officer Training or New CSW Training with their SRO, JPOs, or CSWs if seats are available.
- If your situation is not outlined in the information above, please contact schoolsafetysocialwellness@azed.gov for guidance.

Supporting DAFN in Emergencies/Drills

Recent legislative updates to Arizona Revised Statute 15-341 (31) (a) states that emergency response plans must address how schools will communicate with and provide assistance to students with disabilities. To support school districts in implementing this mandate, the School Preparedness team will discuss Senate Bill 1315, share resources from current ADE guidance documents, and discuss best practices. Ultimately, this training will focus on implementation guidance to help schools ensure all students are adequately cared for in emergency preparedness and response initiatives. Participants will leave with resources and actionable strategies to use in their emergency planning efforts.

ASU Counselor and Social Worker Series: Expressive Therapeutic Interventions

Expressive Therapeutic Interventions:

Expressive arts interventions, used to address stress and challenges in children, can be a great intervention to utilize in a school based setting. This brief form of intervention can be administered in school counseling and classroom based settings, and utilizes a "bottoms-up approach", focusing on sensory and emotional awareness and regulation. When students can self-regulate, and co-regulate with others, it often results in better classroom behavior and improved learning. Come join us for a morning of experiential activities that you can use with students in individual and group settings.
