Native American Students Have the Right to Wear Tribal Regalia

If you are a Native American student graduating from an Arizona public or charter school, you have the right to wear tribal regalia or objects of cultural significance at your graduation ceremony.

WEAR YOUR TRIBAL REGALIA AT GRADUATION

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE NOW.

Talk with Your Relatives

Share your desire to wear regalia with your parent/guardian, family, and tribal community.

Notify Administration

Notify your school administration of your intent to wear tribal regalia as early as possible.

Work with Your School

Work with your school to support a smooth and successful graduation experience.
