

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS
Educate | Empower | Elevate

The Arizona Department of Education English Language Arts team will be back on the road with the Arizona Literacy Road Show this June! Join us at a location near you!

This day-long in-person training will be a deeper dive into the application of the science of reading and structured literacy.

*Same format and objectives as 2025 Road Show with updates. Join us again for a refresher or come for the first time.

Opening session focused on the who, what, how, and why of the science of reading.

Breakout sessions demonstrate how to effectively use assessment and diagnostic data to implement evidence-based Tier 1 literacy instruction for all K-12 students.

- When? June 18, 23, or 25, 8:30 - 3:30 PM
- Who? K-12 teachers, reading specialists, literacy coaches, interventionists, administrators, support staff
- Cost? $20: fee includes resources and campus parking.
- Questions? Email karen.tennapel@azed.gov

Tracks for:

- K-2
- 3-5
- Secondary
- Admin

NAU: FLAGSTAFF

6/18/26

Tempe is full - we encourage you to attend the Flagstaff or Tempe locations!

U OF A: TUCSON

6/23/26

Limited space so register today!

https://bit.ly/ADE_APLD

Search for "literacy road show" and select your location. $20 registration fee covers resources & campus parking. Select "SNAP PAY" for credit card payment.

Arizona Literacy Road Show

