The LEA must regularly, but no less frequently than every six months (taking into consideration the timing of significant changes to CDC guidance on reopening schools), review and, as appropriate, revise its plan for the safe return to in-person instruction and continuity of services through September 30, 2023

25. Describe the process used to seek public input, and how that input was taken into account in the revision of the plan.***

The LEA has regular parent meetings in which parents have the opportunity to give feedback/opinions regarding decisions having to do with in-person learning. School surveys are sent out to the students, parents, and staff members asking for their input. The school board then meets in order to review and discuss the feedback that was given then proceeds with the plan as written.
