Continuity of Services

Including but not limited to services to address students' academic needs and students' and staff social, emotional, mental health, and other needs, which may include student health and food services.

24. How will the LEA ensure Continuity of Services?*

Briefly describe an overview of the continuity of services and in the following questions you will provide more detailed information.

Hybrid learning is defined as a combination of in person and virtual instruction, thus allowing students and families the freedom and flexibility to accommodate their specific needs. Because this definition is broad, and Arizona schools have been afforded flexibility in how they choose to define hybrid instruction, Presidio has developed the following options for our Single Site Hybrid Learning Model:

BLENDED INSTRUCTION

Presidio’s blended instruction combines in person instruction with the use of electronic and online media platforms to support instruction and is Presidio’s primary learning model for the SY23/24 as it provides the most diverse form of instruction.

Students must bring their Chromebooks to/from campus each day.

Teaching teams will not teach to the computer, but will utilize online media platforms as part of the instruction.

Dress Code

All students on campus must adhere to Presidio’s Dress Code. Dress should be appropriate for a school or work environment and may not be openly provocative in nature.

Presidio has a uniform policy for grades K-8, please see subsequent sections for specific information

Grades K-5: green polo shirts

Grades 6-8: blue or gray polo shirts

Shirts, pants/shorts/skirts and shoes are required.

Clothing and headwear should be clean, free from tears/rips, and/or stains and must not depict/represent illegal substances, racial statements, profane language, vulgar or obscene pictures, satanic practices or motifs clearly offensive to a particular group.

Shorts/skirts should be an appropriate length and properly fitted for adequate coverage.

Hats (with bills) and/or sunglasses may not be worn inside school buildings.

Hoods may not be worn over the head on school campuses due to safety concerns.

Headwear (including, but not limited to beanies and headbands with ears) may be worn inside as long as they do not cover any parts of the face.

Presidio Family members are expected to maintain personal hygiene.

Basic personal hygiene habits, such as regular bathing, hair washing and grooming, washing hands, daily brushing of teeth, and wearing deodorant when needed must be practiced.

Perfume, body spray, and/or cologne may be worn in moderation.

“Gang apparel” (bandanas, complete outfits from a professional athletic team, “In memory of...” shirts, dressed out in “colors,” etc.) is forbidden, as it can be disruptive and viewed as threatening or dangerous. All students must wear clothing that is free from holes, rips, and tears.

REMOTE INSTRUCTION

Presidio’s remote instruction consists of live streamed, teacher-led instruction, via Google Meets links, and accompanying digital assignments.

Remote instruction sections will only be made available for sections of classes consisting of 10 or more students.

Students who participate in remote instruction are required to remain in their remote instruction course for the duration of the quarter, unless otherwise specified.

Remote instruction is only available to students in grades 6-12, who are in good academic standing, and have demonstrated the ability to master course content via remote instruction.

Students will be required to independently log onto the Google Meet assigned to their class and demonstrate active participation.

Students who are not actively engaged in the remote lesson will be removed from the Google Meet link and may be marked as absent and/or required to make up the work missed. In order to meet students’ instructional needs, any students participating in remote instruction who do not demonstrate mastery of the content will be required to participate in the blended instruction model.

Presidio will ensure that all teacher-led instruction (whether blended or remote) will be available through the corresponding assignment in Canvas for students to use as a resource. In the event of a class/grade level quarantine or school closure, all courses will transition to teacher-led remote instruction, streamed live (and recorded), following the SY22/23 Master Schedule already in use, thus, creating a smooth transition should the need arise.

COURSEWORK AND ASSESSMENTS

All coursework will be available in digital and hard copy forms and teaching teams will continue to utilize the Canvas Learning Management system to deliver coursework.

CANVAS LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (LMS)

The Canvas Learning Management System (LMS), purchased by Presidio School last year, is used to support and enhance learning for forms of instruction. Canvas allows teachers to provide a personalized learning experience through instructional support, class calendars, messages, notifications, assignments, collaborative activities, and resources that are tailored to each student in one easy-to-use, easy-to-access platform. Parent access in Canvas gives the ability to see what is going on in a course and a calendar of assignments, as well as a myriad of other features including, but not limited to:

Customized notifications

28. How will the LEA ensure continuity of services for staff's social, emotional, and mental health needs?*

Presidio implemented ongoing training and tracking of Professional Growth Plans that include SMART goals to address each domain of the Summative Evaluation.

29. How will the LEA ensure continuity of services for staff's other needs?*

Teachers completed quarterly Glow and Grow peer observations in an effort to build community and share ideas. In addition, weekly internal newsletters provided important information, friendly reminders, and staff shout-outs.

The LEA must regularly, but no less frequently than every six months (taking into consideration the timing of significant changes to CDC guidance on reopening schools), review and, as appropriate, revise its plan for the safe return to in-person instruction and continuity of services through September 30, 2023

30. Describe the process used to seek public input, and how that input was taken into account in the revision of the plan.*

The Safe Return to In-Person Instruction Plan is reviewed quarterly during Board and PTSO meetings, which are public forums. Specific changes (such as the location of meal service) are also addressed through stakeholder surveys. Input from the public is either shared by a representative or presented by a stakeholder and taken into consideration when the Board is making modifications to the Plan. Board Meeting Agendas and Minutes are posted on Presidio's website.
