Inclusion Task Force Goal

Four Elements in Theory of Change:

3.

If we strengthen parents' knowledge of legal rights and support them to participate in decision making...

If we support programs to braid funding to facilitate any child's participation in a preschool setting...

If we increase awareness of the research on the benefits of inclusive settings and high-quality inclusive practices for all...

If we support programs to deliver high quality specially designed instruction for young children...

...Then all children, with family and community support, will develop to their fullest potential
